Sam was a fantastic facilitator. I was actually able to stay awake and remain interested in the discussions because Sam made the content interesting. He was very knowledgeable about the examination process and he provided very good advice as to how to prepare for the evaluation. Sam was professional and helpful, and he really inspired confidence in me that the evaluation was not a major obstacle but rather, something I would be fully capable of facing provided I prepare appropriately. This FFIS was extremely useful and I am very thankful that we had it at this point in time and that our facilitator was so good at going over the material with us.

He explains concept very well. Also, I like the fact that we don't waste time on class introductions like in Module 1.

Sam was very helpful and enthusiastic throughout the weekend. He focused on areas of trouble for students and spent less time on the sections students were more comfortable with. Great facilitator.

Loved his teaching style and addressed student questions

Excellent facilitator - very knowledgeable and presented materially clearly. Great sense of humour and kept us interested.

Sam did a great job leading the FFIS session as he was very knowledgeable about the topics being covered but he also integrated humour and personal experiences into the session, making it more interesting and lively.

He is excellent.

Sam was an absolutely extraordinary instructor! He took the time to explain things in a level of detail that was easily understood. He ensured that everyone had a chance to participate and was unique in his approach to dealing with problems and providing examples and personal anecdotes to illustrate points of interest.

Facilitator was absolutely fantastic. Great communicator, very engaging, very motivating, entertaining. Couldn't have been better.

Made a huge difference in learning various concepts that were self-taught (and only partially understood) prior to the session.

Good teacher. Very clear. Could slow down a little...maybe just focus on the most difficult concepts (valuations, consolidation, wind-ups) and not worry about the smaller topics...this way there will be enough time to teach the material comfortably

Sam was great in presenting and teaching the material. He kept the students engaged during the course of the weekend.

I liked his jokes.

very personable and knowledgeable.

Sam was a great facilitator and genuinely cares about his students' learning. He was very thorough in his explanations and was great at keeping the class engaged.

Sam is a very engaging speaker and he did an amazing job presenting the material in a way that we understood. He also got us thinking about the issues and was very receptive to questions.
